

Unix System Monitoring

This page is an index of most common Unix commands for confirming system status and performing Unix system monitoring.

Unix system status

- uptime – find out how long the system has been up
- who – find out who is logged into the system
- uname – print Unix system information
- runlevel – report previous and current Unix OS runlevel

Processes and system status

- top – display tasks and system status in Unix

See Also

- Unix Commands
- Advanced Unix Commands
- Basic Unix Commands